7. OTC transactions, which are submitted into the HUDEX OTC Clearing Registration Platform by HUDEX Members, are not anonymous for the respective parties to the transaction in the OTC Clearing Registration Platform of HUDEX, except the case when the OTC transactions are submitted by OTC Brokers.

II.4.3. Clearing of OTC transactions

1. Upon receipt of the confirmation from the seller and the buyer, HUDEX will submit the confirmed transaction for clearing to the Clearing House.
2. If HUDEX discovers that transaction details as notified to HUDEX are not correct, or if the seller and/or buyer fail to confirm the transaction to HUDEX in time and the transaction does not respect OTC Clearing Registration Rules, then HUDEX will not accept the transaction and will not submit the transaction for clearing to the Clearing House. HUDEX will notify the parties of the transaction accordingly.

II.5. Common rules for clearing for transaction concluded via Broker Trading Systems and OTC Clearing Registration Platform

1. If the Price of the transaction is not within the price range set by the Clearing House, then the Clearing House may reject, in its sole discretion, to register the transaction until sufficient margin, as calculated by the Clearing House, has been deposited to the Clearing House by the relevant HUDEX Member(s).
2. If OTC transactions do not correspond to the specifications and requirements referred to in these OTC Clearing Registration Rules or in case a HUDEX Member does not fulfil the requirements for HUDEX membership, the Clearing House is entitled to reject the clearing of the submitted OTC transaction in a manner binding on both parties and on HUDEX. HUDEX shall not be liable for such decision of the Clearing House, and HUDEX Members shall accept and take the risk of such rejection of the clearing of entered OTC transactions by the Clearing House.
3. Upon entry of an OTC transaction with a valid price, confirmed by both parties, the clearing conditions of the Clearing House shall apply with regard to the contractual relationships between the Clearing House and the HUDEX Members involved in the OTC transactions and/ or their Clearing Members.
4. In addition, the terms and conditions of the clearing conditions in the respectively valid version of the Clearing House shall apply with regard to the settlement and provision of security for the OTC transactions entered.
